

WOODBOROUGH HALL

Wakes and Life Celebrations

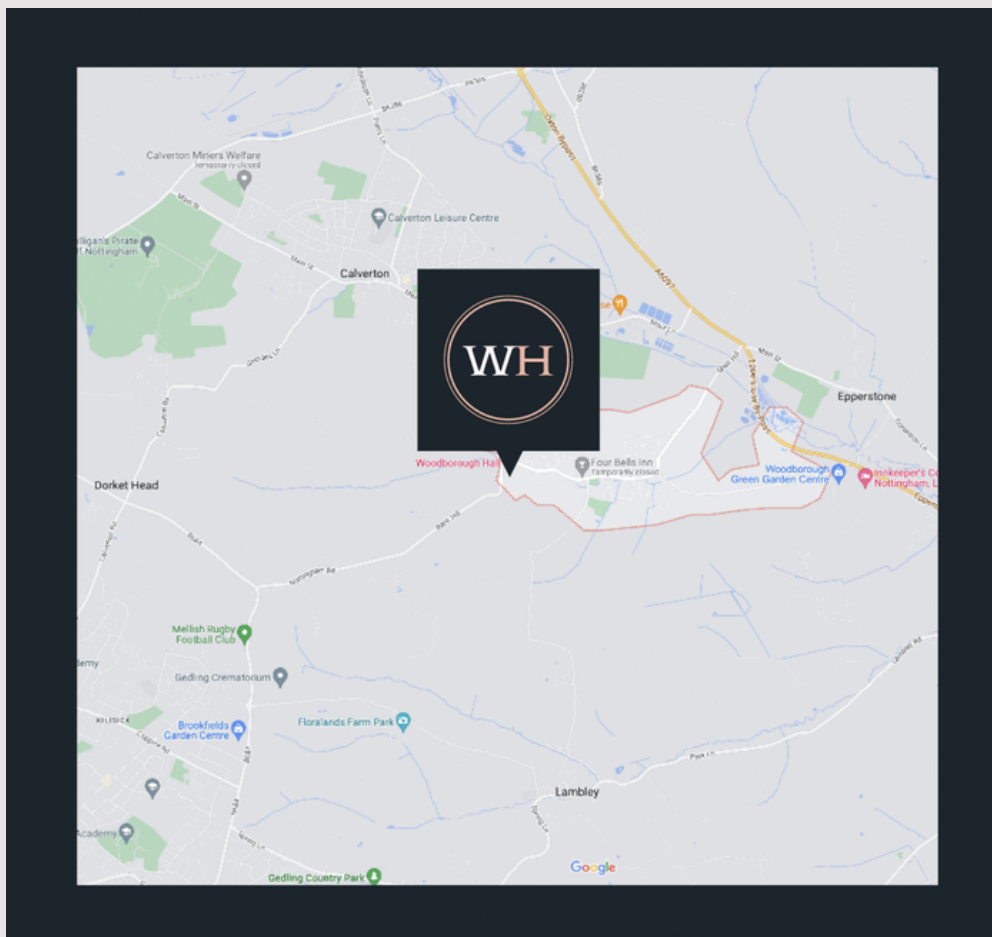

We're Here For You...

We understand this may be a difficult time for you and those closest to you, but our experienced team is here to offer a gentle hand in delivering a tasteful and sensitive send off for your loved one.

From the very beginning, our dedicated team will be here to help you through every step of the way, sensitively supporting the planning of the day to create a special moment for you to remember their life in an informal and relaxed environment.

Woodborough Hall is conveniently located near Nottingham City Centre and close to all major transport links in and out of the city. Guests will also have free exclusive access to our on site car park.
